
Phil Collins, Face Value Full Album Zip

Collins proves himself to be a passionate singer (and outstanding drummer) with a gift for both deeply felt ballads and growling rockers. His debut album has been transformed. A music video was filmed for the song "Only One", in which Collins starred alongside Chris Martin and other members of The Cure. According to Collins, about 100 songs were recorded on the album, and in the process of working on it, in his opinion, he "became a professional musician." Collins also noted that working on the album's songs had a "huge impact" on him, pushing him towards "deeper, more emotional, more complex music".
